Dear Friends,

On any given 3rd Monday of the month, you can come to our Faith@Work luncheon in Albuquerque and see local business women taking Psalm 78:4 to heart: "we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders".

Caryn and her daughter Erin work together in the family car business

In September, my 23 year old daughter, Rebecca, was our keynote speaker. She shared about the challenges of being authentic about her faith among her peers. She struck a chord with many of the women who heard her story. One commented, "I came to the luncheon thinking there was nothing a young woman her age could tell me that I didn't already know. I left with a renewed conviction about standing firm in my faith!"

Local Nav Catholic Staff bring their daughters and friends to Faith@Work

Diane is mentoring her friend Melissa

We know that many of our 20-something daughters, neighbors, co-workers and friends are the future women of influence in Albuquerque and we want to be intentional about casting a vision for bringing Jesus into the marketplace for their generation.

My daughter Rebecca spoke about her pursuit of holiness at a recent luncheon

Please pray for these young women who are joining the workforce and facing daily challenges to their faith. Pray that they may "speak God's word with all confidence" (Acts 4:29) and that many business people around the city will come to Christ because of their witness. Thank you for keeping this ministry in your prayers.

Together in Him,

Karen Warin
