Meeting God in Unexpected places...

Who would have thought He would be waiting for me about 50 miles south of Las Vegas, NV at the "Last Stop" (how prophetic!) Tourist Shop on Highway 93. After a wonderful Thanksgiving with family in Las Vegas, Leroy and I were just starting the 9 hour drive home when the transmission gave out in our Avalanche.

A year ago I would have been pretty stressed out by something like this, but I've been on a journey with God this past year that has deepened my intimacy with Him and provided fresh ministry opportunities for me. I believe that because of this, I was more aware of His presence in the midst of our circumstances. As we waited on the side of the road for a tow truck, I was filled with a sense of gratefulness for His provision.

Meeting God in Unexpected places....

This just happens to also be the theme for our upcoming Faith@Work Christmas luncheon, an annual event that draws over 250 women. Susan Jameson, one of our favorite repeat speakers, will be sharing about meeting God in the unexpected. Whether we meet Him in a manger, the marketplace or the trials in our lives, He is there for us, ready to be known.

I'd love to have you join us to hear her speak at Embassy Suites Hotel on Monday, December 12th. Email me at kwarin@navigatorsabq.org if you'd like to attend and I'll reserve a spot for you!

Meeting God in Unexpected Places...

Ten years ago I would never have dreamed that I would be doing ministry with such a diverse group of passionate people. Our Albuquerque Metro Team of Navigators includes Anglo, Hispanic, Native American, Catholic, Protestant, ministry to the wealthy and to the poor, ministry to children and to business executives. I have seen God work in situations I never before experienced and I am so blessed to be a part of such an amazing team.

We have much to celebrate as we approach the end of another year of ministry! God is faithful and His work is being accomplished! Finally, "I thank God for you, the God I worship with my whole life..." (2 Tim 1:3 MSG). May God bless you and your family this holiday season.

In Christ,

Karen Warin
