Finding Answers in God's Word

Did you know memorization is good for your brain and even decreases cognitive decline? Besides the health benefits, Scripture memory will help you grow in your faith and disciple others.

As a disciplemaker, you may wonder what God's Word has to say about everyday life issues—like stress, money, and even knowing God's will. Here are eight Scriptures focused on everyday topics to encourage you and those you're discipling, whatever the circumstances. Memorize and meditate on these Scriptures and discover the transformative power of God's Word.

Discernment "In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps" Proverbs 16:9.

Guilt "Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me" Psalm 51:9-10.

Perfectionism "Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now trying to attain your goal by human effort?" Galatians 3:3.

Anger "A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger" Proverbs 15:1.

Money "No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money" Matthew 6:24.

Stress "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" Philippians 4:6-7.

Suffering "Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him" James 1:12.

Love "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" John 13:34-35.
